As Muslims, we should always try our best to be sincere. Being sincere means to do good things for Allah alone and hoping for reward only from Allah.

LET'S MEMORIZE THE HADITH!

إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ

--	--	--

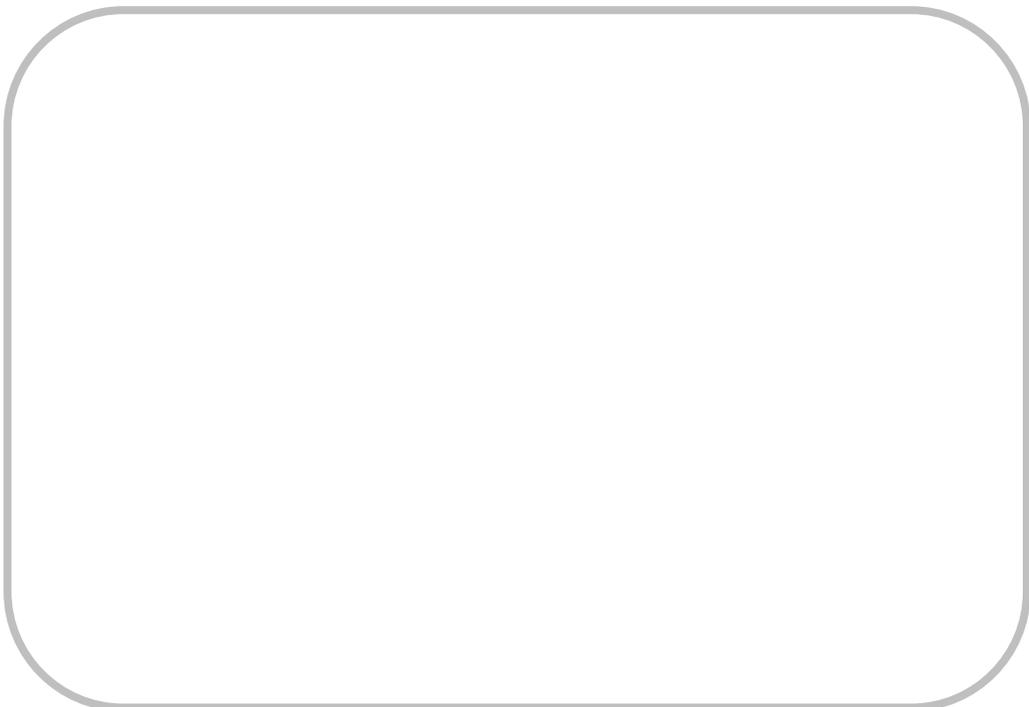

Actions are (judged) by intentions.

How to be sincere when doing good?

THE SECRET DONOR

'Ali ibn al-Husain ibn 'Ali (rahimahullah), used to carry a sack filled with bread every night. He would send them to houses in secret.

None of the people of Madinah knew who used to give them the food. Until one day, 'Ali ibn al-Husain passed away. They no longer received food like how they used to every night.

They eventually found out that 'Ali was the one who used to give them food when they saw a black mark on his back, which was caused by the carrying of heavy load that was given to the poor people of Madinah every night.
